BLUE/WHITE ARE MOTOR POOL ROUTES
RED ROUTE ONLY ON WEEKENDS

The Joint Readiness Training Center and Fort Polk is beginning a trial shuttle bus service on the installation to facilitate transportation to high-traffic official duty locations and ease traffic on post. The trial program is underway and runs until Nov. 2.

Throughout the trial period, the shuttle service will be closely monitored to determine if it meets the needs of the community. If use is large enough, at the end of the trial period, Fort Polk's command will start the process to implement a contract solution.

The shuttle service has several routes: red/purple, blue and white. Blue and white routes are motor pool routes; the red route runs only on weekends.

The Fort Polk Post Shuttle is a free service for Soldiers, Department of the Army civilians and dependents on Fort Polk.
